2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Gaelscoil Thulach na nÓg is an all-Irish primary school under the patronage of An Foras Pátrúnachta. It is a coeducational school established in 1997 and is an interdenominational Gaelscoil. The promotion of the Irish language is a primary objective of the school. We welcome all children regardless of their background, beliefs or special needs.

Our aim is to develop the complete personality of the child towards understanding and a sense of correctness. S/he will be taught in a positive, happy, open learning environment whereby his/her personality is celebrated, encouraged and nurtured. The Gaelscoil will work hand in hand with parents to educate and teach the child.

Emphasis is placed on continuous, worthwhile work. We undertake to teach the child good social skills, a high moral standard, a wide range of academic and practical skills – all through the medium of the Irish language.

We hope to stimulate in each child an interest in acquiring knowledge, to provide opportunities for physical development through physical education and to foster an interest in all children in the Arts. It is proposed that all these aims be met through the implementation of the primary school curriculum but the Irish language will always be place first and foremost.

Each child will get a taste of many Irish Traditions. Armed with knowledge and self-confidence s/he will go forth well-equipped to learn European and other languages with ease.
